Medicine Hat, June 11-12, 2016

Tracking comes to Medicine Hat! I am a long-time tracking clinician and a CKC tracking judge – all levels. My passion is to inspire people to enjoy tracking as a wonderful sport that builds a dog's confidence and enhances your relationship with your canine partner!

As a professional coach, my goal is to provide you with tailored training tips and tools whether you are beginner to the sport, or experienced and looking for some new ideas and skills.

ALL dogs and handlers can START in the urban environment!

- 4 beginner working spots
- 4 advanced working spots
- $200 / weekend (details on page 2)
- Limited observer spots – please contact me

Questions? Donna - spiritdance@shaw.ca Call or text: 403-318-1331 AFTER 5 pm (I work weekdays)

Are you interested in being an observer without a dog? Observers will help lay tracks and follow, plus get copies of all handouts and take part in all activities. Cost is $125, limit of 4 observers for the weekend.

As always, I welcome your live-in partner to attend for no extra fee, hoping they will lay tracks for you!
