

The Alberta Kennel Club is pleased to present a
CKC New Agility Games Clinic

With CKC Agility Judge Kiersten Lloyd
May 2, 6 pm – 9 pm

Bow Dogs 6809 Farrell Rd SE, Calgary

Kiersten will be present a breakdown of the rules for the new games, PAD and Steeplechase, as well as answer questions regarding recent CKC rule changes. Participants will then have the opportunity to run 2 PAD courses. This is a great opportunity to try out the new games before the upcoming summer CKC agility trials!

We will be limiting the number of working handler/dog pairs to 15, but can accommodate a number of individuals who want to audit for the information and to watch the runs so that they can see the games in action.

Cost: Working pairs $40 Audit only $20

Please bring a chair for yourself and a crate for your dog if you are bringing one.
