Judges Biographies

Conformation

Erin Brown – Australia -All Breed - I am a licensed All Breeds dog judge (Australian National Kennel Club) and have been judging at Championship level since 1987. I judge extensively in Australia and New Zealand, and also regularly in Europe and throughout Asia. I started exhibiting show dogs in the early sixties and registered the Quanmarra prefix in 1971, when I imported my foundation Salukis from Daxlore Kennels in the UK. I have also shown and bred Papillons, Rottweilers and Dachshunds however Salukis have remained as my abiding passion. Over the years I have owned and bred a number of multiple Best in Show winning Salukis and have bred in partnership with Penny Dunkley and Ahmadi Salukis owned by Ian Rasmussen and Philip Bennett. Our dogs have included the top Saluki in Australia for 2002, 2003, 2004 & 2005 and Queensland Dog of the Year 2004 and 2008. More recently we have owned, shown and bred the Queensland Hound of the Year over several years with different dogs. While I love the elegance and ethereal look of salukis, I do have a very strong belief that all dogs should be able to do the task they were developed for, so I look for structural soundness as well as type - so we Lure Course our dogs for fun as well as showing them.

Denise Cornelissen - Denise started showing in 1973 and has been judging since 1990. She has owned and bred Shetland Sheepdogs and exhibited Finnish Spitz. Breeder of over 80 Canadian, American and Japanese Champions, and multiple Best in Show, Best in Specialty Show and High in Trial Shelties. She also bred Canada's first bi-black BIS Sheltie. Won the Canadian Shetland Sheepdog National Specialty and several other large Specialties. Won the American Shetland Sheepdog National Specialty. Denise travelled with an all-breed professional Handler (CPHA) for approximately 5 years, and groomed and showed dogs in all Groups. Denise has judged most of the Shetland Sheepdog Specialties offered in Canada as well as several in the USA and Japan, the Canadian Rottweiler National Specialty, Regional Specialties for Siberian Huskies, smaller Specialties for breeds in most Groups, several large all-breed Shows in the USA, Canada, Australia and Korea. She has served in most positions with Specialty Clubs and all-breed Clubs over the past 35 years, and is a Charter and Life member of the Canadian Shetland Sheepdog Association; Member of the American Shetland Sheepdog Association; Life member of the Canadian Kennel Club and Member of the Northern Alberta Canine Association.

Gunnar Nymann - Chouan Kennels - In my childhood we always had dogs (Rottweiler, Doberman, German Shepherd, Danish/Swedish Yard dogs) but never for shows, just pets, and for me personally, horses was always top priority, so it was not until relatively late that I started taking an interest in dog shows. When I was at college I got my first dog, a German Shepherd, he was found one night in bar and my then girlfriend paid the man 2 beers and a packet of cigarettes for him. I got my first showdog in 1980 (a Petit Basset Griffon Vendéen) and it was with this dog the interest took off. We have been breeding Petit Basset Griffon Vendéen since early 80'ies and with good results, I guess the most well-known is Danish, German VDH, Dutch, American, Canadian, Burma Champion (and also 2 times World Winner)

Chouan Gimlet, who was awarded Best in Show at the World Show in 1989 and Dog of the Year All Breeds 1989. We have exported PBGVs to many countries in the world, and our dogs are behind many of the top winning PBGVs you will see all over the world, including Australia. In 1993 we got our first Siberian Husky. Kontoki's Gibson Girl (called Ewok). Already from day one her show career took off like a comet with Best in Show at the Amsterdam Winner Show in 1993, which was her first show in Europe, She won BIS in many countries, and was 2 times Dog of the Year All Breeds in Denmark. Her son, Chouan Breaking The Waves was top dog in Sweden in 2000, and runner up I Denmark the following year. However, because of too much work, we have had to give up the Sibbs, as we did not have the necessary time to work them. Besides the Petit Basset Griffon Vendéen and Siberian Huskies we have also owned and shown Basset Hounds, Bichon Frise, Löwchen, American Cocker Spaniel, Chow Chow (short haired), Hovawart, and Brittany Spaniel. I am licensed by FCI to judge all breeds and Best In Show. I have judged in Denmark, Finland, Norway, Sweden, Iceland, Russia, Estonia, Latvia, Lithuania, Poland, Slovenien, Italy, Schwitzerland, Belgium, Holland, Germany, England, Ireland, USA, China, New Zealand and Australia.

I live in a 250 years old house approx 1 hour out of Copenhagen together with Holger, 1 cat and on an average approx 5 dogs. I like going to the theater and Opera, and I also love gardening, but have far too little time to be serious about it.

Shawn Nichols - My involvement in purebred dogs started in 1982 when I attended my first conformation shows. I quickly developed a keen interest for the sport of dogs. In the summer of 1985 I went to work for professional handlers Mark and Sally George, in Northern California. I soon realized this sport would be a life commitment. I continued to work for professional handlers, namely Tim Brazier, Mark Shanoff and Carol Graham, all of whom offered me the privilege of working with some truly amazing dogs. Eventually I relocated to Calgary where, in partnership with Raymond Yurick, I handled several breeds specializing in Toy & Terrier breeds. One of the dogs we showed was Am. Can.Ch. Clarion Camelot Communique, Canada's top Non-Sporting dog and #10 All breeds in 2008. I have bred Wire Fox Terriers, Whippets, Scottish Terriers but primarily Toy & Miniature Poodles under the Typecast prefix. In 2007 I took on the job of editor for Terrier Type, a unique magazine that chronicled the history and achievements of the Terrier since 1961. I currently reside in Burnaby where I work with Kao Canada in Sales and Marketing. My career aspirations have me pursuing my Marketing Sales Management Diploma at BCIT. In 2012, I started to judge and I have completed the Toy & Non Sporting Group this past year I have recently moved on to the Hound Group. Judging to me was a natural evolution to add to my experiences in the dog world. It also allows me to remain current with issues of importance to breeders and exhibitors and offers me a means to be involved with CKC.

Brenda Wilson - Brenda started in the dog show game with the purchase of her first purebred in 1980, an Old English Sheepdog. From the time they began attending puppy obedience classes, she was hooked on the sport. Brenda bought her first Golden Retriever in 1984 and has had many Goldens sharing her life since then. Brenda and her husband, Dale, have owned and bred Goldens, German Shorthaired Pointers, and Labs and owned a Flat-coat & a Pug. As well as competing in the conformation and obedience rings in both Canada & the US, Brenda trialed the Flat-coat to his WCI and JH. Along with her husband, Brenda currently shares their home with a Labrador, a Boerboel and a Pug ranging in age from 1 to 10 years. Brenda is a life member of the Canadian Kennel Club, the Golden Retriever Club of Canada and the Nanaimo Kennel Club, and is one of the founding members of the Sporting Dog Club of BC. She is licensed for all sporting and working breeds, and is on permit for half of the herding group.

Obedience & Rally

Paul Oslach - One day I wandered down to the far end of the arena during a dog show to see what else was going on. Next thing I knew I was hooked. The dogs at that end of the ice pad were doing more interesting things like jumping and retrieving. That was some where around 1980. Since then I have trained and shown Cavalier King Charles Spaniels. In 1982, I became the proud owner of Ch & OTCh. Picbrand Mardi Grais, the first Cavalier in Canada (and North America) to obtain a Utility Title. My judging career began the 1988 and has taken me all over Canada and parts of the United States where I have seen some of the best arenas. My other hobbies include camping and canoeing.

Lynne Oslach - I have always loved animals and horses in particular. When I met my husband Paul in 2001 I spent most of my time at the barn with my horse. Paul, who had owned Cavalier King Charles Spaniels for over 25 years, was not only an obedience judge but had trained the first Cavalier in North America to its OTCh. Within the year I had a Cavalier of my own. Joy and I learned about obedience together as we took our first classes. I found out how exciting it could be to work with your dog as a team. By titling together Joy gave me the opportunity to become an obedience judge. I have had a wonderful time judging in Canada, the US and Bermuda. My greatest pleasure is to see a happy dog and handler team who know each other's every move working together in the ring. When I'm not involved a dog activity I like to spend my time outdoors doing photography.
