OUR SPECIALISTS

Emmanuel Fontaine

graduated from the Toulouse Veterinary School in 2004, Emmanuel Fontaine continued his studies at the Alfort Veterinary School (Paris) as trainee Vet in the domestic carnivore unit of the Reproduction Department. From 2005 to 2011, he worked at the Centre d'Etude en Reproduction des Carnivores (CERCA) [Research Centre for Reproduction in Carnivores], a unit specializing in pet breeding assistance. Dr. Fontaine is also qualified at the European College for Animal Reproduction (ECAR) and recently completed his PhD. He joined Royal Canin Canada's PRO team in September 2011.

Sara Ritzie

graduated from the Ontario Veterinary College in 2007. She moved to British Columbia to work in private practice for three years, before returning to Ontario to join Royal Canin. She spent 1.5 years as a Technical Service Veterinarian, providing case consultations to veterinarians across Canada, and then stepped into her current role as Scientific Communications Manager of the Retail Division in 2012.
