

Companion Dog Training
presents
Nathan Clarkson for a
Sport Scent Detection Workshop
February 20/21, 2016

This is a new sport that is gaining popularity quickly. Introduce your dog to this fun sport. Teach him how to use his nose to find a hidden scent. A great way to build your relationship and exercise his mind. This workshop is for Beginners and Intermediate level handlers/dogs.

- Two Beginner sessions Sat and Sun 8:30am-12:30. Register for either Sat am OR Sun am session
- Beginner working spots are $73.45 for working (10 spots each day)
- Auditing spots are $22.60/session/day (10 spots each session/day)
- Intermediate session is BOTH Sat AND Sun from 1:00 to approx. 5:00 pm
- Intermediate spots are $146.90 for both days (10 spots)
- Light refreshments will be offered throughout the day - Workshop is indoors
- Contact info is listed below. Contact Marie Sawford cdtmarie@yahoo.ca with any questions
- Directions can be obtained on the website www.companiondogtraining.org

Nathan Clarkson – Professional K9 Handler

Nathan Clarkson is Professional K9 Handler and Owner/Operator of Perfect Scents Drug, Narcotic & Bed Bug Detection. Nathan Clarkson has 15 years of experience working with animals, guiding him to find his passion in training and working with dogs. He has worked alongside Karen Clarkson owner and operator of Pet-D-Gree, Professional Dog Services, Dog Training and Boarding. Four years ago Nathan started up his own business now called Perfect Scents, adding a division of Bedbug Detection dogs two years later. Currently Nathan owns two dogs specializing in Drug Detection, four German Shepherds and a Dutch Shepherd all specialized working dogs.

His success has attracted the general dog sport people that are looking to learn sport scent detection with their beloved pet. He also runs private, workshops and multiple scent detection classes.

Nathan is also one of the two founders of Canadian Sport Scent Detection Federation, a newly developed Scent detection organization. He is doing workshops of all levels across Ontario. He is also a judge for CSSDF Scent Organization.

Please fill out the registration form below and mail/drop off to Companion Dog Training complete with payment (cheque/cash /etransfers accepted. Credit card payments can be done in person). We are expecting these workshops to fill quickly. Refunds will only be given if a replacement can take your spot.

Handler's Name	Dog's Name
Address (including postal code)	Breed
Email:	Please circle: Beginner Saturday Morning
Please circle: Intermediate - Both days!!	OR Sunday Morning