

EARTHDOG

Marconi and Buster investigate the false den.

- Do you own a Dachshund (any size) or a smaller Terrier?
- Would you like to give them a chance to try a new activity? Show they can do what they were bred to do? Play a game they will love?

Please come out to our FUN DAY, October 15th in FALKLAND

B.C – 5409 – Hwy 97 N - enjoy some fresh air, sunshine and camaraderie with fellow dog lovers while your dog “goes to ground” to find rats!
(Bring your own chair).

9:00 a.m. – Registration – sign up for an activity

9:30 a.m. – Earthdog starts – Introduction to Quarry, Junior and Senior runs.

$2.00 per run – 5 runs maximum per dog per level.

- “Judge” will provide instruction and feedback.
- There will be hot dogs, chili, buns and drinks available for lunch for $5.00
- 50/50 draw, raffle table, other demos
- terrier races & lure coursing in the afternoon ($2 a run).
- Note: This is not a CKC sanctioned test – it is for fun and practice only!

Susan Carbert, Falkland, B.C. madselin@telus.net (250) 379-2545 or

Debbie Miyashita, Canoe, B.C. debbiem@sunwave.net (250) 804-2928

Sandra Ralph, Vernon, B.C. tavendale1@shaw.ca

Note: No rats are injured or killed in this activity. The rats used in the practices and tests are our pets and well protected in secure cages as well as protected by law!

