Mr Shawn Nichols

My involvement in purebred dogs started in 1982 when I attended my first show. I quickly developed a keen interest in the sport of dogs. In the summer of 1985 I went to work for professional handlers Mark and Sally George, in Northern California. I soon realized that the sport would become a life commitment and passion. I continued to work for professional handlers Tim Brazier, Mark Shanoff and Carol Graham, all of whom offered me the privilege of working with some truly amazing dogs and helped cultivate who I've become over the past several decades. Eventually I relocated to Calgary where, in partnership with Raymond Yurick we professionally handled all breeds. In addition to showing for others we also bred and showed Wire Fox Terriers, Whippets, Scottish Terriers but primarily Toy & Miniature Poodles under the Typecast prefix, Whippets under Brushwood.

I have sat on the board of several clubs holding almost every possible executive position including being a charter member of the Non Sporting Fanciers of Alberta. I currently serve Evelyn Kenny Kennel and Obedience Club as its Show Chairmen. I have also been the Show Secretary for several clubs in the West as well. In 2007 I had the honour of purchasing and assuming the responsibility of Terrier Type, a unique magazine that chronicled the history and achievements of the Terrier since 1961. I also worked in collaboration with Raymond and his sister Yvonne Norton on the inception of Canadian Dog Digest. In 2010 I returned to Vancouver and transitioned from being the owner operator of my own salon to a cooperate position with Kiao a Japanese owned with German roots. I quickly realized that if I was going to succeed in my role I would have to pursue a better understanding of modern business. During my seven years with Kiao I completed my Marketing Sales Management program at BC accelerating my understating in social media. In 2017 I was head hunted by L'Oreal Professionnel for a position in Business Development which would have me return to Calgary. Creating strategic relationships and growth are at the heart of what I do.

In 2012, I started to judge, I completes my All Breed status in 2022. Judging to me was a natural evolution to add to my experiences in the dog world. It also allows me to remain current with issues of importance to breeders and exhibitors and offers me a means to be involved with CKC. In addition to judging in Canada and the US it has afforded me the luxury of judging in Mexico, Korea and Australia. I had the great priviledge of judging at Westminster Kennel Club in 2022 and Miniatures at Poodle Club of America in 2023. I have also had the great opportunity to present to the Canadian Dog Judges Association twice, once with Poodles and more recently Ethical Social Media for Dog Judges

I have been involved in the sport of purebred dogs since 2008. As breeder/owner/handler of Pinup Miniature Pinschers, I have owner-handled many champions and grand champions in a limited breeding program; including National Specialty winners. My journey in the world of Miniature Pinschers began over a decade ago, driven by my fascination with their distinctive personalities and stunning aesthetics. Over the years, I have honed my expertise in breeding these remarkable dogs, striving for excellence in health, temperament, and conformation. I have also owned and exhibited Miniature Longhair and Miniature Smooth Dachshunds.
