

The Labrador Owners Club presents

Coaching the Canine Athlete©

Seminar with Dr. Chris Zink

(DVM, PhD, DACVP, CCRT, DACVSMR, CVSMT, CVA)

November 7th and 8th, 2020

Companion Dog Training - 1195 Franklin Blvd.

Unit 3 and 4, Cambridge, ON N1R 7R7

Dr. Chris Zink, world-renowned sports medicine specialist and award-winning author, discusses how the canine body works, what you can do to improve performance, and how to help keep your dog healthy and injury-free. Geared towards all canine sport participants and enthusiasts, Dr. Zink alternates between demonstrations and lecture times using visual aids such as PowerPoint presentations and slow-motion videos. This highly interactive seminar provides ample opportunity for attendees and their dogs to: participate in structure and gait analysis, to practice conditioning exercises with their dogs, and to participate in jump training and exercises appropriate to targeted performance events. Working and Auditing space available – working spots limited to 30 dog and handler pairs.

CPDT Credits (14 hours) available.
