Skill Building For Trialing
Friday, August 24, 2012 9:30 — 5:30 PM
Fisherman's Hall
4481 Savoy Street, Ladner, BC V4K 1P3

Learn many critical aspects of the sport of K9 Nose Work from the man who started it all. Topics covered will be skills applicable to NW1 level for each element include: dog's performance, behaviors, shaping, handler techniques, hide difficulties/placement, team communication, trialing strategies and understanding how your dog does a search. Ron will address individual challenges for dog/handler teams.

For those wishing to audit, there is much to be gained from Ron's instruction on Skill Building. Please take advantage of this unique opportunity to further your learning and comprehension. What you will learn from Ron, whether you are in a working spot or an auditor, will help you and your dog move forward, have fun and be more successful at the competitive levels.

Workshop is limited to:

10 Handler Teams (Working Spots) and
30 observers/auditors

The 10 working spots will be addressing all 4 elements for NW1.

You are welcome to audit even if you have titled your dog at NW1.

Registration

- Your registration includes: Refreshments, AM/PM snacks
- Attendees will provide their own lunch
- Please bring a notebook, pen/pencil to take notes
- Working Teams bring treats for your dog
- Videotaping of the formal presentation is prohibited
