

Nosey Pawtners Presents:

Nosework Seminar with SDDA Judge Heather Wilson

Bio: Heather Wilson began breeding, raising and training German Shepherds in 1980. Over those years she has been very involved with many aspects of training, including working for 13 years with RCMP certified SAR dog teams, earning championship show titles on many dogs, obtaining numerous CKC obedience and tracking titles on various dogs, garnering Schutzhund titles on many dogs and earning SDDA titles on three dogs. Heather has also been an instructor in a variety of performance sports, as well as being an SDDA judge. Heather has years of experience as both a student and an instructor, which are invaluable.

AGREEMENT TO HOLD HARMLESS, WAIVER AND ASSUMPTION OF RISK

I understand that attendance at a dog training workshop, function, or event is not without risk to myself, to anyone accompanying me or to my dog(s). Some dogs may be difficult to control and may be the cause of injury, to persons or other dogs, even when handled with the greatest degree of care and precaution. I hereby waive and release Heather Wilson & Nosey Pawtners from any and all liability of any nature, for injury or damage which I or my dog may suffer, including specifically, by without limitation, any injury or damage resulting from the act of any dog or employee. I expressly assume the risk of such damage or injury while attending any training session, or any other function of this Training Organization, or while on the training grounds or the surrounding area thereto, used.

In consideration of and as inducement to the acceptance of my application I hereby agree to indemnify and hold harmless this Training Organization, its employees, members, and agents from any and all claims, or claims by any member of any family or any other person while on the grounds or surrounding area thereto as a result of any action by any dog, including my own.

All vaccinations, including Kennel Cough, must be current prior to attendance.
